

SETO Construction site tripod - 3.8 m

Masts & stands

Article No.: 1410000345

13

KG

Description

Compact transport, air cushioning for maximum safety and operating comfort, adjustable feet with duct for pegs, stainless steel, incl. Integrated DIN pin and guy set with pegs

Product Highlights

- Safe and comfortable operation thanks to air damping
- Quick assembly and disassembly, easy handling
- Robust and stable
- Suitable for mobile and stationary use
- Incl. guy set

Technical Specifications

General Data

| Attribute              | Value                                              | Unit |
|------------------------|----------------------------------------------------|------|
| Brand                  | SETO                                               |      |
| Series                 | TELESKOP DREIBEIN                                  |      |
| Model                  | CONSTRUCTION SITE TRIPOD                           |      |
| Dimensions (Transport) | 1150x200x200                                       | mm   |
| Height                 | 3,8                                                | m    |
| Weight                 | 13                                                 | kg   |
| Max. Payload           | 20                                                 | kg   |
| Adaption               | DIN bolt                                           |      |
| Feature                | Air Cushioning, Feet ready for Use of Ground Nails |      |

Accessories

Other

| Article No. | Image                                                                             | Name                                           |
|-------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------|
| 1410000657  |  | Transport bag nylon, shoulder strap for tripod |

Additional Product Images

Subject to technical changes, price adjustments and errors.